DR. SUE KELLER | BIO

Dr. Sue Keller is a graduate of Harvard University, earned her Doctorate of Dental Medicine at the University of Connecticut School of Dental Medicine, and trained at Hartford Hospital (CT) as a General Practice Resident in dentistry. Retired from 25 years in private practice, she is an expert in oral health prevention and care for dentally anxious adults. She is an oral health prevention champion who advocates for innovative community oral health solutions on a state and national level. Dr. Sue pursues several career passions. She is a community vaccinator all over MA, a life coach supporting people who want to live their best lives, an oral health prevention coach for groups and individuals, and oral health consultant/patient advocate for patients struggling to navigate complex dental treatment recommendations and care.

She is a member of the American Dental Association's Institute for Diversity in Leadership Class of 2019-2020. She is the MA Grassroots Representative for OPEN Oral Health Progress and Equity Network, a participant in the National Collaborative for Infants & Toddlers, and an oral health representative on the Advisory Board for the Voices Health Leaders for Healthy Kids program 2021-2022 Progress Report | Voices for Healthy Kids.

Dr. Sue lives in Deerfield, MA, and Hamden, CT, and is a new empty-nester with two young adult children. She enjoys spending time with friends rowing/sculling, hiking, swimming, playing symphonic double bass, making pottery, and performing musical improv. She learned to sail a boat last year, and has jumped out of a perfectly good airplane...twice!
